MRS PATRICK MORAN.

Mrs. Patrick Moran, 79, died Saturday noon in her home on Beech street, had been in failing health some but she was able to be about the until a little more than a week her death. The funeral was held in St. Michael's Roman Catholic church Tuesday morning at 9 oclock and high mass of requiem was conducted by Rev. Father E. J. Moriarty of Taunton, Mass. a relative of Mrs. Moran. The burial took place in the Roman Catholic cemeand the bearers were John D. Sul-of Greenfield, Daniel Sullivan, John Sullivan and Patrick Bowler.

Mrs. Moran's maiden name was Bet-sey Sullivan. She was born in County Kerry, Ireland, in April, 1833, a daughter of Timothy and Ellen (Moriarty) Sulli-van. She was the last surviving member of her father's family. When she was 16 years old she sailed for America and came directly to Brattleboro. This was in 1849, the year that the first railroad train came to this town, and the incidents connected with the public celebration of that event were among the memories of her younger days, Before her marriage she was employed in the family of Deacon Russell Hayes in West Brattleboro, uncle of President Ruther-Brattleboro, uncle of President Ruther-ford B. Hayes, and at the time of her marriage she was employed in the Cune home on Main street, the present home of Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Pratt. Twelve years after Betsey Sullivan came to this country Patrick Moran emigrated from Ireland. That was in 1861, when he was 21 years old and when Abraham Lincoln was president. He lived Abraham Lincoln was president, He lived in Waltham, Mass., a short time and then came to Brattleboro and did farm work and later was employed in the Centreville tannery. In 1862 he and Betsey Sullivan were married June 14 by Rev. Father Charles O'Rellly, the first resident pastor of St. Michael's Roman church. The marriage took place in the church rectory on Spring street. They lived in the Doyle house on Eiliot street, then bought a house on the Brook road, which was burned more than 25 years ago. Afterwards they lived on Frost place and nine years ago moved to the house at 4 Beech street, which they owned.

On June 14 of this year Mr. and Mrs. Moran observed their golden wedding anniversary, but on account of the ill health of Mrs. Moran no special plans were made. A good number of friends and relatives came, however, and the anniversary afforded the aged couple much pleasure. On July 3 they were greatly surprised and pleased by a visit from Mr. Moran's son, John Moran of Dayton, Ohio, who was thought to have been dead more than 20 years.

In her young womanhood Mrs. Moran was decidedly attractive in her personal appearance, and she always stood firmly by the principles of honor and uprightness. She was greatly devoted to her on largely in her native language and she always had a cordial welcome for her many friends. Besides her husband and stepson, she leaves one daughter, Miss Margaret T. Moran, the last survivor of seven children, who has given her time the given her time the past few years to the devoted care of her father and moth-

WELL TOLD

By a Brattleboro Resident.

The following has more interest for Brattleboro residents than it otherwise would have because Mr. Benson is one of ourselves, a citizen of Brattleboro. If it prove of assistance to but one person in Brattleboro, it will have been well worth the telling. Rexford Benson, harness maker, 16 Canal street, Brattleboro, Vt., says; "I first learned of Doan's Kidney Pills some ten years ago. At that time I was suffering from kidney trouble, the most troublesome symptom being sharp pain across my back and hips. If I took cold it settled in my kidneys and made my suffering more intense. After working hard for a few days, my back became very lame and sore and I was hardly able to get about. During a severe attack of the trouble, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. H. Holden's drug store and began using them. They relieved me from the first and in a short time the backache disappeared. During the lapse of years there have been a few slight return attacks of the trouble, but at such times Doan's Kidney Pills have always relieved me. I will be pleased to give further details of my case to anyone who calls on me '

Dragged a Mile by Runaway Aeroplane. George Schmidt of Rutland was the victim of a peculiar accident with his aeroplane at the aviation field in Hempstead, N. Y., Tuesday. The way of test-ing an aeroplane to determine whether it can take up a man is to hitch on a block of concrete to see if the engine is strong enough to drag the block. While Schmidt was making this test the rope broke. Schmidt grabed the tall of the machine, thinking he could climb board and stop the engine.

He went across the aviation field in wo jumps. At the entrance Gustave Ey of New York was just entering in an automobile. Luckily the aeroplane jump-ed just then and cleared the auto with Schmidt hanging on behind. Schmidt went over Ey's head and narrowly es-caped kicking him. Finally the aeroplane reached the Long Island Motor Parkway, which is con-crete, and was smashed to bits. Schmidt's right shoulder biade was broken and he was rendered unconclous. He was taken to the Nassau hos-If there is any one we would like to impose upon it is the chap who is for-ever trying to get something for noth-ing.
